Privacy statement

Meeting your child support obligations involves giving accurate information to Inland Revenue Child Support. We ask you for information under the Child Support Act 1991 so we can correctly assess your liabilities or entitlements. It is not compulsory for you to supply the information requested in this form.

We may exchange information about you with the Ministry of Social Development, the Ministry of Justice, the Department of Labour, the Ministry of Education, the Accident Compensation Corporation or their contracted agencies. Information may also be provided to overseas countries with which New Zealand has an information supply agreement. Inland Revenue also has an agreement to supply information to Statistics New Zealand for statistical purposes only.

You may ask to see the personal information we hold about you by calling us on 0800 221 221. Unless we have a lawful reason for withholding the information, we will show it to you and correct any errors.

The information you provide on this form and on the calendar may be the subject of a request by the other party under the Privacy Act 1993 and/or the Official Information Act 1982.

I declare that the information I have provided on this questionnaire and on the attached calendars is a true and accurate account of my and the other party's responsibilities and financial commitments for the child/ren. I have read the privacy statement, and I am aware that details of the information I have provided may be requested by the other party.
