

Prisoner and hospital patient exemption - application

 Use this form if you are in a prison or hospital for 13 weeks or more and want to apply for an exemption from paying child support or domestic maintenance. Prison inmates earning wages or salary through a release-to-work programme may not qualify for an exemption.	 To be given an exemption, your taxable income must come solely from investment income and be less than the minimum annual rate for the relevant child support year, or a benefit paid at the hospital rate. If you receive a full benefit for part of the time you are in hospital you may still qualify for an exemption. Prison allowances are not counted as income.	 An authorised person of the prison or hospital must fill in the back of this form.	 To find the minimum annual rate for child support, go to www.ird.govt.nz/childsupport (keyword: minimum child support). If you need help, call us on 0800 387 782 prisoners, or 0800 221 221 hospital patients.
