

IRD number application - resident individual

Complete this form unless you are a non-resident or an offshore person (see notes page). If you are, use the IRD number application - non-resident/offshore individual (IR742)

To apply for an IRD number for you or for a child in your care

1. Use the applicant checklist on page 2, complete the form on page 3 and sign the declaration on page 4. Take the form with current supporting documents (documents that have not expired), for an “In person verification” to an authorised Inland Revenue agent. These are:
 - Automobile Association (AA) Driver Licensing Agents
 - PostShops
2. You must provide one original document from Category A, and one original document from Category B with your application, as well as a legible photocopy of each of your documents.

Category A documents

- Full New Zealand birth certificate issued on or after 1 January 1998
- New Zealand passport*
- Overseas passport* (with New Zealand residence visa granted by Immigration New Zealand)
- New Zealand emergency travel document
- New Zealand firearm or dealer's licence
- New Zealand refugee travel document
- New Zealand certificate of identity (issued by Department of Labour or Department of Internal Affairs)
- New Zealand citizenship certificate

* If you are providing a passport please photocopy the pages showing your photo, name and New Zealand residency class visa granted by Immigration New Zealand.

Category B documents

- New Zealand driver licence
- New Zealand 18+ card
- New Zealand student photo identification card
- A letter confirming registration as a student in New Zealand
- An “offer of employment” letter from your employer, on their company letterhead with start date of employment
- International Drivers' Permit (issued by a member country of the UN Convention on Road Traffic)
- Overseas Drivers' Licence (accompanied by an English translation completed by an LTNZ authorised translator, if not already in English)

 If this document is used you must provide a document from category A that contains a photo.

If you're not able to provide the required documents from category A and category B, please call us on 0800 227 774 to discuss your options.

3. If the documents you provide are in another name, you must provide an original document that confirms how your name was changed, eg, marriage certificate, deedpoll, change of name certificate, civil union certificate, and a legible photocopy of that document.

4. If you are applying for a child who is in your care and they are under 16, you must provide:

For the child

- One original category A or B document and a legible photocopy

For you

- Full proof of your own identity—see 2 above.
- An original document and legible photocopy which shows the relationship between you and the child, if not already shown in the category A document for the child, eg,
 - a New Zealand full birth certificate issued on or after 1 January 1998 for the child
 - court documents showing child and caregiver names, eg, adoption papers, parenting orders, guardianship orders
 - a Statutory declaration (IR595D)—you can download this from www.ird.govt.nz

Note: If you're the parent of a new baby and you haven't registered their birth yet, you can apply for your baby's IRD number at the same time as you complete the birth registration form. You don't need to complete this form or provide verification at an authorised agent if you do this.

5. The completed application form will be kept by the person who verifies the application. They will forward the application to Inland Revenue. You will receive your IRD number within 8-10 working days of Inland Revenue receiving your application. To receive your IRD number through email and text message please ensure to provide consent at Question 8b.

Notes

Complete each part of form marked ■

An offshore person is someone who:

- is a New Zealand citizen and has been overseas for the past three years or more continuously, or
- doesn't have a New Zealand residency visa granted by Immigration New Zealand, or
- has a New Zealand residency class visa and has been overseas for the last twelve months continuously.

Question 1 - children under 16

- If you're applying on behalf of a child, the IRD number shown here must belong to the person who will be providing the relevant documents identifying their relationship to the child.
- If you're making the application on behalf of a child for Working for Families Tax Credits, the IRD number shown here must belong to the principal childcarer.

Question 2 - applicant information

- If you're completing the application for a child, enter the child information in this section.
- If you're completing the application for yourself, enter your information in this section.
- If you're using a preferred name, which is different from your given name, you must provide a document confirming your preferred name.

Question 7 - address information

Residential address

Please show a physical address, not a PO Box number or private bag. If you have a rural address, write the property and/or rural road name on line 1 and the rural delivery (RD) number and town on line 2.

If you want your correspondence sent overseas please show the address you want it sent to.

- Postal address - complete only if it's different from the residential address. If not a street address show one of the following:
 - PO Box
Line 1 - PO Box number
Line 2 - box lobby
 - private bag
Line 1 - private bag number
Line 2 - box lobby

Don't show your tax agent's address here.

Question 8 - Contact information - Consent

By ticking the box at Question 8b you agree to receive your new IRD number by email. If you provided a mobile phone number, you will also receive a text message with your new IRD number. Inland Revenue will take all reasonable steps to reduce any risk of unauthorised access or release of confidential information. If you don't provide consent, your IRD number will be mailed to the postal address you provided.

Question 9 - temporary tax exemption on foreign income (complete this question if you continue to receive income from overseas)

You qualify for a temporary tax exemption on certain foreign income for four calendar years (up to 49 months) if you meet both these requirements:

- You qualified as a tax resident in New Zealand on or after 1 April 2006.
- You haven't been a New Zealand tax resident at any time in the past 10 years prior to your arrival date in New Zealand.

Please note:

- You can only claim this exemption once.
- You can't receive Working for Families Tax Credits while your foreign income is tax exempt.

For more information on temporary tax exemption on foreign income, go to www.ird.govt.nz

Nominated persons

We can't discuss your tax affairs with anyone except you. However, you can nominate someone else to do this for you and have access to your Inland Revenue records once you have received your IRD number.

You'll still be responsible for your own tax affairs, so you'll need to make sure any returns are filed and tax is paid by the due date.

For more information, or to nominate someone to act on your behalf, complete an Elect someone to act on your behalf (IR597) form. You can get this from www.ird.govt.nz or by calling 0800 257 773 (remember to have your IRD number with you).

Applicant checklist

Have you:

- provided a current category A original document and photocopy/s?
- provided a current category B original document and photocopy/s?
- provided current photocopies of any additional documents?
- provided linking documentation for child?
- completed your part of the application form?
- signed the application?

Please tear off this portion after you've had identity verified in person and keep it for your records.
