11. Will any of your employees have a student loan?

Yes

No

12. Will you be providing fringe benefits to your employees?

See the note below for more information on fringe benefits.

Yes - go to Question 13.

No - go to Question 14.

Note: Most benefits given to employees in addition to their salary or wages are fringe benefits. These include motor vehicles, low-interest loans, free, subsidised or discounted goods and services, and employer contributions to sick or death benefit funds, superannuation schemes (other than employer's superannuation contributions), specified insurance policies and some accident insurance schemes. If a benefit you give an employee is a fringe benefit, you will generally be liable for FBT (fringe benefit tax). If you ticked "Yes" at Question 12 read our Fringe benefit tax guide (IR409). You can view this at www.ird.govt.nz

13. If you:

- ticked the "Yes" box at Question 12, or
- did not tick either box at Question 12

we will automatically send you quarterly FBT returns (unless you indicate otherwise below).

Complete this section only if:

- you would prefer to file annual or income year returns instead, and
- keep wage records
- your annual gross tax and ESCT (employer's superannuation contribution tax) deductions are $500,000 or less
- you are a close company and you only provide motor vehicles for private use to shareholder-employees and that benefit is limited to two vehicles (option B).

Please tick the option you prefer:

Option A Annual returns for ordinary employees only (no quarterly returns).

Companies only

Option B Income year returns for shareholder-employees only (no quarterly returns).

Option C Annual returns for ordinary employees and quarterly returns for shareholder-employees.

Option D Income year returns for shareholder-employees and quarterly returns for ordinary employees.

Option E Annual returns for ordinary employees and income year returns for shareholder-employees (no quarterly returns).

14. As an employer you will need to:

- keep wage records
- automatically enrol and make KiwiSaver deductions and contributions for all eligible new employees
- make deductions from employees' wages
- complete and file employer monthly schedules
- pay the deductions to Inland Revenue.

We want to help you understand your employer responsibilities. To help us work out what information and services you might find useful please answer the questions below. This may involve one of our tax advisors contacting you to discuss how we might be of assistance to you.
